

Captioning vs. Non-captioning

(Jane King 2002)

Captioning

- Discover learning English from movies.
- Bridge gap between reading and listening.
- Understand expressions in context.
- Follow plot easily.
- Learn new vocabulary and idioms.
- Develop concentration in following lines.
- Learn word pronunciation.
- Develop word recognition.
- Improve rapid reading and processing.
- Learn to keep up with captions.
- Comprehend jokes.
- Learn different processing strategies.

Non-captioning

- Develop tolerance for ambiguities.
- Use visual and audio clues to guess meaning.
- Improve active listening.
- Appreciate the value of authentic English.
- Build confidence.
